OCEAN VIEW.

The Summer Season is On—The Pleasure Pier, Vaudeville, Etc.

Railway Service Inaugurated on the New Railway Along the Beach—Good Bathing and Fishing—Cottages and Club Houses are Open—Theatrical Attractions for the Opening Week.

Ocean View has now fairly opened its Summer season, and the heated days of Summer are filling up the hotel, cottages and clubhouses.

Bathing is most enjoyable, and many are in the water daily, while fishing is also good.

The concert Sunday by Prof. M. P. Kruger was much enjoyed. The following program, given there Sunday afternoon, will show the high class of music provided by Professor Kruger:

March—"Man Behind the Gun".....Sousa
Overture—"William Tell".....Rossini
Waltz—"Militaire".....Waldteufel
Carnet Solo—"Holy City".....Adams
Mr. F. Bugliosa.

Selection—"Runaway Girl".....Moncton
Intermezzo—"Nalla".....Tobaine
Excerpts from "Singing Girl".....Herbert
"Heavens Are Telling" (from "Cretion").....Handel
March—"Monticello".....Kruger
"America."

The work on the new pleasure pier is progressing satisfactorily, and the pier will be ready for use about July 1st. The handsome pavilion on the pier will be fitted up in a pleasing manner, and the opera chairs removed from the Academy of Music will be installed in it.

It has not yet been decided what resort will be the scene of the Labor Day celebration, but the general sentiment seems to favor Ocean View, on account of its many attractions and central location for all the cities of this section.

Summer vaudeville began last night. The Ocean View Theatre, under the able management of Mr. Joseph LaFaucier, of the Academy of Music, promises to be more popular than ever before.

The performance yesterday at 4:30 p. m. and 8:30 p. m. drew good crowds and those present were much pleased. The talent for the opening week includes Norma Wills and Merle Collins, musical sketch team; Hinton Brothers, comedy jugglers; Williams and Adams, "The Monte Carlo Millionaires"; Miss Annie Kenneock, singing comedienne, and Kelly and Reno, eccentric acrobats, who have just closed an engagement with Charles H. Yale's "Devil's Auction."

A number of new cottages are being constructed, and others are receiving additions.

The new railroad track along the water front is completed, and a car is there to meet every train. This is a great convenience to all who have cottages southwesterly from the Ocean View Hotel.

The Ocean View Hotel is in charge of Mrs. Doherty, who formerly kept the Purell House, and formerly W. C. McDowell, who was there last season, is again behind the desk, much to the gratification of his thousands of friends.

WILLOUGHBY BEACH.

The Willoughby Hotel is doing well under the management of Mr. Woodley, and has a number of guests.

The Richmond Clubhouse is open, and has about twenty guests.

The Willoughby Club is also open for the season, and is a much sought resort by those who are entitled to its hospitality.

Work on the new church is progressing well. The sacred edifice stands near the railway track and southeasterly from the hotel. The building will be very pleasing architecturally.

Rumor says that a movement is on foot for the building of a clubhouse at Ocean View by the various Norfolk military companies.

Lots of Sport To-day.

The boys of St. Mary's Academy will leave this morning for Taylor's Farm, where they will hold their annual field day exercises. A lengthy program of races and other athletic sports has been arranged, and will be carried out today. Winners of the different numbers will be awarded prizes.

HON. MARSHALL PARKS.

PASSES AWAY AFTER A LONG AND USEFUL LIFE.

The announcement yesterday morning of the death of Commodore Marshall Parks, a most prominent and highly esteemed resident of Norfolk, at the home of his son-in-law, Dr. George H. Rose, in this city, Sunday afternoon at 3:30, was heard with feelings of profound sorrow throughout the community.

Mr. Parks was about 80 years of age, and had been confined to his room for the past twelve months. His wife preceded him to the grave several years ago, leaving a family consisting of his three daughters, Mrs. Holt W. Park, of Norfolk; Mrs. George H. Rose, of Norfolk; and Mrs. Richard U. Goode, of Washington, D. C.

Mr. Parks was a native of Old Point, where his father conducted a hotel, but the deceased had lived in Norfolk the greater part of his life. His prominence in Norfolk ran back through a period of many years. He was closely identified with the business interests of this city, and served as a member of the City Council and in the General Assembly of Virginia. Mr. Parks and Mr. Cartwright were the builders of the Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal, and the former was its president for about thirty years.

Mr. Parks was the projector of the Virginia Beach railway, building a part of it, and held the honor of president of the company for some time. During the first administration of President Cleveland he was Supervising Inspector of Steam Vessels for the district, which extended from Baltimore to Florida, with his headquarters in this city. This was the last public position he held in the active pursuits of business life. He was a gentleman of wholesome congeniality, an excellent comparison, and was always full of interesting reminiscences. Being largely interested in steam navigation and in canal enterprises, he possessed a fund of information on the subject.

The funeral was held from St. Paul's Episcopal Church at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. B. D. Tucker, D. D. The remains were laid to rest in Elmwood Cemetery, the casket being handled by eight colored men. The following friends of the deceased were the honorary pallbearers: Captain W. W. Oil, Captain W. C. Whittle, Mr. James T. Leigh, Dr. Frank A. Walker, Captain R. L. Buckner, Major A. B. Cooke, Captain John Vermillion, Mr. George McIntosh.

CAUCUS OF COUNCILMEN.

CAPTAIN TAYLOR'S WARD WILL VOTE SOLIDLY FOR HIM.

In the rather spirited race for the Police Justiceship, Captain Tazewell Taylor has received the first formal endorsement of councilmen-elect from any ward. Captain Taylor and Judge Wilcox are from the same ward, and it was rather a surprise to some when the eight councilmen-elect from their ward—the third—met and gave unanimous endorsement to Captain Taylor for Police Justice. It had been anticipated that Judge Wilcox would get one or two from this ward.

The second ward, it is understood, is solid for Captain A. J. Dalton. This ward has eight councilmen also.

The fourth ward, with six councilmen, is solid for Judge Wilcox. It is thought.

The other wards are divided. There are 35 councilmen. As it now stands, the three aspirants will enter the caucus Thursday night with nearly equal strength at the start. Captain Dalton may have one or two votes less than his opponents on the first ballot. The result is certainly problematical.

The fight over the police chiefdom through the selection of police commissioners has been fiercely, but quietly, waged during the last few days. Both sides are claiming victory.

A contest of which there has previously been no mention is that over the office of license inspector. The present incumbent, Mr. A. Lagorio, is opposed by Messrs. Wm. Harrison, of City Treasurer Herman's office, and Herbert Smith, Jr. The fight, it is said, will be between Messrs. Lagorio and Harrison.

A Sunday Shooting.

J. Gordon Early, a young man of Bedford City, who had been boarding in Portsmouth, shot himself at Ford's Hotel, East Main street, Sunday evening, and is now at St. Vincent's Hospital in rather a serious condition. He will probably recover.

Early, who is only 19 years old, has been suffering a great deal lately from heart trouble, superinduced, it is said, by excessive cigarette smoking. An associate said that Early said that he would shoot himself if his heart kept on troubling him. It is also said that he told a girl from one of the vaudeville houses that he was going to kill himself.

The bullet entered the left side of the abdomen, and passing through the body fell out from the back.

BATTLESHIP KENTUCKY.

STEAMERS TO LYNNHAVEN BAY—HAS TAKEN ON AMMUNITION.

The battleship Kentucky steamed down this morning to Lynnhaven Bay, where she now lies. On Saturday she took on ammunition. It is understood that she will return to Hampton Roads between the 15th and 20th, and take on full stores. It is believed that she will then join the squadron at Newport, R. I.

Wall Paper Caught Fire.

A fire was started in Mrs. Cecil's residence, corner Boush and Bute streets, about 9:15 o'clock last night by wall paper catching on fire and falling upon a trunk of clothing. The Chemical engine house force extinguished the flames before any damage of consequence resulted.

MITCHELL GUILTY.

Judge Asked to be Lenient in Fining the Newport News Man.

Sylvia Ann Teemer Pension Case Continued—Unlawful Detainer Proceedings Dismissed—Fines in the Police Court.

The jury in the case of John Mitchell, the Newport News man, charged with forging an endorsement on a money order and receiving payment on the same, returned a verdict of guilty as to the last count in the United States Court yesterday.

Attorney Moss, of Hampton, asked Judge Waddill to set aside the verdict as contrary to the law and evidence in the case but the motion was denied.

Mitchell's attorneys then plead for leniency on the part of the court in sentencing the prisoner. Judge Waddill announced that he would pass sentence later.

The case of Sylvia Ann Teemer, colored, charged with perjury in a pension case, was continued until the next term of court.

CORPORATION COURT.

In the Corporation Court yesterday the civil docket was called, and several cases set for trial.

The unlawful detainer proceedings of Mrs. Lydia Vanderberg against James W. Stubbs were dismissed at plaintiff's cost.

Judgment for the plaintiff was given in the case of C. D. Cake against James Simmons.

In the clerk's office yesterday deeds were recorded making the following property transfers:

D. Tucker Brooke, W. H. T. Loyall and P. A. Agelasto, special commissioners, to W. H. Smith, two lots with improvements fronting 24 feet on Princess Anne avenue; $1,200.

IN THE POLICE COURT.

Justice Tomlin disposed of business in the following manner in the Police Court yesterday:

Sandy Shepherd, colored, assaulting Mary Allen; fined $3.50.

E. H. Williamson, fast driving; fined $3.50.

Rebecca Bailey, colored, forgery; withdrawn and dismissed at the request of the complainant, Albert Parker.

Sunday School Association.

The quarterly session of the Methodist Sunday School Association of Norfolk was held in the Cumberland Street M. E. Church Sunday afternoon. The president, Prof. W. M. Jones, being absent, Vice President M. E. Keeling, of Berkley, presided, with Mr. W. E. Hew as secretary.

An interesting address on the subject of "Promptness" was made by Mr. Hugh J. Paylor, of Epworth Church. Banners were awarded the following schools:

For Attendance—Huntersville School, For Punctuality—Cumberland Street, For Contributions—McKendree School.

After singing the association adjourned to meet with LeKies Memorial Church, Atlantic City Ward, on the second Sunday in September, at which time the annual election of officers will take place.

Woman Saw Purdue.

There having been some doubt of the story sent out from Petersburg that John W. Purdue, the missing Atlantic City Ward man, was seen in that city on May 28th, Constable Hayes, of the Huntersville district, and Captain John H. Fleming, of Portsmouth, a brother-in-law of the missing man, went to Petersburg yesterday and investigated the story. They secured an affidavit from Alice Wood, of that city, saying that she had seen and talked with Purdue on the night of the 28th. Purdue told her that his wife was dead.

Mr. R. W. Shultice, counsel for Mrs. Purdue, says that that lady firmly believes her husband was murdered.

Ladies' League Lawn Party.

The Ladies' League of the Queen Street M. E. Church gave a lawn party on the corner of Brambleton and Maltby avenues last night, which was numerously attended and liberally patronized. It will be repeated to-night, when the ladies will endeavor to present some pleasing attractions in vocal and instrumental music. Cream and other light refreshments will be served at a nominal price, and all visitors will receive the most courteous attention.

WATT, RETTEW & CLAY.

Just what we expected.

The "ever-watchfulness" of some stores keeps them constantly a-wondering "what's going to happen next at Watt's?"

And, in their frantic endeavor to get in line with this store's doings they always fail. We had been planning this ever since last March, and since then have been carefully selecting the highest-grade garments from the leading muslin underwear makers of this country.

We placed big orders when cottons were low and when makers were eager to accept actual cost of production in order that the wheels of their industries might not cease running and to give work to their employees during the dull season.

From such wise and far-sighted planning evolves this great June Sale—the only sale of any consequence in Norfolk to-day.

The hundreds and hundreds of pleased women who attended this sale yesterday—and who bought largely—is proof positive that weak efforts, springing up like mushrooms, over night, can't hope to successfully compete with carefully planned store movements of great proportions such as originate here.

THE

Joseph Brown STORE

No Summer Day,

ever equaled yesterday in point of sales. That speaks well for your growing appreciation. And may we say, gratefully, that such encouragement incites to renewed, enlarged endeavor and that we fully expect increased fruitage from every worthy effort.

People in the store yesterday, who were never in it before. They say, they'll come again. We pleased them. We believe we can please others—folks who are not our patrons.

There's nothing like it, or superior to it, as a light woolen Summer Fabric. All-wool, 32 inch, slightly serviceable. Specially good, where you want accordion plaiting.

Navy Cotton Grenadines.

SOLID VALUE SELLS.

There is simply a little judgment necessary for those that seek to dress well at a moderate outlay.

These Suits at Nine Eighty-Five have a strong claim on the economical dresser.

Hundreds of men that are usually in the habit of wearing expensive clothes have availed themselves of this unusual trade gathering value.

The new patterns just opened have proved to be big trade winners.

No room for fault about the style—fabric or tailoring.

$9.85 Pays the Bill.

That is all that is necessary to say—the Suits are in every way far beyond the expectations of the masses. It is the strength of manufacturing resources. The power of ready cash to buy advantageously—knowledge of what to buy and how to make up.

Nine Eighty-five in many instances here covers the same purchasing power as would fifteen dollars in high charging stores and smaller operators.

Money saved is money made.
